

Maximising Redemption: Failing to Acknowledge God

I will shake all nations, and the desired of all nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory,' says the LORD Almighty.

See Haggai 2:7

Failing to Acknowledge God

There are the arrogant aggressive souls that smother their psyches with pride in their personal beauty and/or physical prowess, their intellectual or military achievements, their wealth or power. Such souls are usually casually cruel to others, often fostering social structures that make people non-citizens and deny basic human rights, and are constantly looking for new ways to expand (which is invariably through the misappropriation of resources from the more needy of their own or others' societies).

A major component of God's training for my soul has been in identifying how souls can degenerate from "normal" parameters into such vexatious moulds. This training led to the writing of "psychological escalation" nor "captive minions" nor "seiging the walls" (do not read if you are faint hearted) which were sent to my church leaders in July 2005. These papers try and describe the psychological issues of the extremists, so the churches can start to develop theological responses to these destructive paradigms (One of the extremists taunts is that we can't even agree on a definition of evil. If nothing else, this report should help to move the dialogue in this area alone). These papers were sent to my church in July 2005 to prepare them for an escalation in overt hostilities such as the December 2005 Sydney riots. Unfortunately, by remaining in denial of my purpose, they missed a chance to proactively prepare their flocks.

The lovers of violence continue making media releases such as those in December 2005 continuing to incite hatred and bombing in Iraq, claiming that it is their destructive influence that has caused countries such as the US to discuss handing back control to the Iraqi people. It is now so easy to see that these leaders are not from God because they repeatedly failed to publicly acknowledge God's influence in exposing the US's weaknesses and bringing them to their knees, and only look beyond their human activities. These thugs failed to acknowledge the influence of natural disasters such as Katrina, Rita, Wilma/Alpha/Nor'easter. [I loved the Jews when one commented after Katrina that it only took one storm to bring the US to its knees, they should have tried forty years in Exodus. American citizens' egos might have been hurt, but it was a Jew's recognition of familial ties and that God admonishes those He loves. It was also a clue as to how to move forward in God's reconciliation plan.]

The terrorist bandits also failed to acknowledge the impact of the December 2004 SE Asian tsunami and the October 2005 Kashmir earthquake in terms of awakening humanity's global consciousness for the need for compassion and to look beyond narrow political and military agendas.

These same lovers of perversion and violence (e.g. Jeremiah 5:7-9) demonstrated their bankruptcy in July 2005 when the whole world was praying for peace and a means to help the poorest of nations; these thugs sought to hi-jack the agenda back into an agenda of escalating fear and intimidation with the July London bombings. Unbeknownst to them, they walked directly into snare that God had set, because through their complacency and delusions they actually triggered an enlightenment for the majority of humanity came to recognize that they showed no regard for the gods of his fathers or for the one desired by women, nor will he regard any god, but will exalt himself above them all. (Daniel 11:32).

In fact there are tracts of the bible that seem peculiarly appropriate to these recent times. For example Daniel 11:27-39. The passage The two kings, with their hearts bent on evil, will sit at the same table and lie to each other, but to no avail, because an end will still come at the appointed time. (Daniel 11:27) could easily refer to the machinations alluded to in Michael Moore's book "Stupid White Men".

The passage from Revelation 13:3-10 is even more interesting when you consider that it was forty two months from the September 2001 9-11 World Trade Centre to the Nias earthquake/Iraqi elections in March 2005. It is also interesting to note that a magnetar explosion occurred within a matter of days of the 2004 tsunami. In this article http://www.nasa.gov/vision/universe/watchtheskies/swift_nsu_0205.html there is the comment: "The next biggest flare ever seen from any soft gamma repeater was peanuts compared to this incredible December 27 event". Now in the bible God says "This is what the LORD Almighty says: 'In a little while I will once more shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land. I will shake all nations, and the desired of all nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory,' says the LORD Almighty. (Haggai 2:6-7)

Thus if one genuinely believes the bible, then it is fair to say that if God shook the heavens and the earth starting with the December 2004 tsunami, that it was His call for all the desired nations to come and honor God to the fullest. When and where have our extremist thugs bowed their knees to this greater authority in the last year? What we have seen is that any time there is a diversion away from their agendas; they escalate their inciting of hatred and violence to draw attention back to their pathetic agendas. This is completely consistent with my assessment of their bankrupt conditions and there are some papers attached for discussion on the core bankruptcies of their psyches & "theology".

Aggressive extremists have no intention of building societies where people can raise happy children or allow others to live to an old age in relative peace and security. Such a world is the antithesis of their personal cravings; look at human rights and "fair trials" Iran and Afghanistan. However, the US should not be complacent; their legal system is nearly as draconian. When we read the bible we see that God does not respect these people, but that God also hands us over to such people when He considers us too adulterous and proud e.g. Deuteronomy 28:50, Isaiah 66:1-12, Jeremiah 6:11-19; Ezekiel 16.
